Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show the beams bowing as described in the specification. A new figure showing the position of the beams when bowed out and bowed in are required. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Art Unit: 3652

Claims 2 and 4 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. The parent claims already contain the limitation of the beams bowing based upon the pivoted wheels.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. Using at least one wheel in each arm is critical or essential to the practice of the invention, but not included in the claim(s) is not enabled by the disclosure. See In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976). The specification is clear in that at least one wheel on each beam is needed to flex the beams allowing them to be wider than a container. Therefore the device will not work as intended with only one beam being flexed as claimed in claim 1. The intent of claim 1 must be for a single movable wheel as a movable wheel is added to the second beam in claim 15. As all claims are dependent upon claim 1 they also are not enabled.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3652

Claims 1 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is not clear is direction of travel or the orientation of the wheel causes the beams to flex in or out or if it is a combination of both factors. Clarification as to what causes the beams to flex in or out as provided in claim 12 will be sufficient to render this rejection moot.

Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The specification gives at least two means for preventing the beams from spreading apart. It is unclear which means are being claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

The general inventive concept of the instant invention is novel when compared to the closest prior art of Hogberg et al. In order to place the application in condition for allowance a new independent claim encompassing the limitations of claims 1,11,15 and 17 as a whole such that the 35 U.S.C. 112 rejections and the 35 U.S.C. 101 rejections are rendered moot. Such a claim is needed to ensure the device has utility and produces expected results when operated as disclosed. The claim should be clear that each beam has a pivoting wheel and how the position of the pivoting wheel changes the deflection of the beams as the device is moved forward or backward.

Art Unit: 3652

The prior art made of record and not relied upon, but considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure is: Herlach 1940, Oehler 1974, Klein 1967, Hogberg et al. 1987, Nordlund 1997 and MacEachern 1999.
